

Department of Chemical Engineering
University of California at Berkeley
Berkeley, CA 94720-1462

April 25, 2002

RE: A. niger Isolate

Dr. Kevin McCluskey
University of Kansas Medical Center
Department of Microbiology
3901 Rainbow Blvd
Kansas City, KS 66160
(913) 588-7044

Kevin,

Enclosed is the A. niger isolate as per our email correspondence. It has been inoculated to the center of the plate and is on PDB, it will grow well at RT, 30°C and 37°C. If there are any problems with the plate upon arrival please do not hesitate to contact me either by email or telephone, your help is greatly appreciated.

Regards,

R. David Laidlaw
Research Associate to Jay D. Keasling dlaidlaw@uclink.berkeley.edu
ph.510.643.1876
f.510.643.1228